SUBJECT: Information on Jonas DAINAUSKAS

I have learned from my friend J. Talalas that former Lithuanian State Security officer Mr. Jonas DAINAUSKAS has arrived in Paris from Poland early in 1957. His arrival was disclosed by the Lithuanian daily newspaper "Draugas" ("Friend") on 21 March 1957. According to Mr. J. Talalas, Mr. J. Dainauskas approached the Lithuanian representative in Paris Mr. St. BAKIS, renounced his Polish citizenship, and requested to reinstate him the Lithuanian citizenship.

Mr. J. Talalas was requested by the Lithuanian Consul in Chicago Mr. Petras LAUDZVARDIS to submit some information about Jonas Dainauskas. On 7 April 1957, J. Talalas wrote a letter to the Consul furnishing him with all available data. (I think that this information may be in hands of proper US authorities).

Since the past of Mr. J. DAINAUSKAS was shrouded in mystery during the first Soviet occupation of Lithuania, from 1940-41, as well as during the German occupation from 1941-1944, in my opinion he might be considered as a potential Soviet agent.

His wife with two children immigrated to the USA

Mr. J. Talalas commented that Dainauskas, Fnu Jr. has already served with the US Army, and therefore his father
may have some preference to immigrate to the USA.

In the opinion of Mr. J. Talalas, more information concerning Mr. J. Dainauskas' activities may be obtained from his former co-worker Mr. A. LILLIKIS. Mr. A. LILLIKIS came to the USA sometime in 1954/55.
